

LexisNexis Partners with Veritext to Offer TextMap Exhibit Package, Free Format for Reviewing Deposition Materials

New York – June 18th, 2010 – LexisNexis, a leading global provider of content-enabled workflow solutions, today announced that it will partner with Veritext, one of the largest providers of deposition services to the U.S. legal market, and provide the TextMap Exhibit Package for all Veritext clients nationwide, free of charge.

The TextMap Exhibit Package delivers all transcripts and exhibits to legal professionals in one all-inclusive package. Each TextMap Exhibit Package will include the capabilities to search key words within a transcript using the free TextMap Reader. Additionally, transcripts will be hyperlinked to all related exhibits.

For existing TextMap users, Veritext will simplify, save time and money by delivering transcripts already hyperlinked to your exhibits in one package via the TextMap Exhibit Package. Since TextMap is already part of your life, you'll have the full functionality that TextMap already offers, including the ability to search multiple transcripts at a time, import transcripts seamlessly into TextMap, and that's just the beginning!

TextMap is a transcript management software from LexisNexis that manages transcripts in an electronic format. TextMap creates a searchable database of electronic transcripts from case depositions, examinations and other proceedings. The power of TextMap is the ease of use, the superior functionality of linking multiple exhibits to transcripts, the robust reporting capabilities and the ability to have case exhibits hyperlinked into the transcript.
